Nova doba slovenskega filma

A New Age for Slovenian Film

Spošтовane gledalke, dragi gledalci, Letošnji pregled v okviru 16. Festivala slovenskega filma govori o bogati slovenski avdiovizualni produkciji, in to kljub času, ki filmskim in umetniškim ustvarjalcem nasploh niso najbolj naklonjeni. Če letošnji festival pogledamo skozi prizmo številk, lahko ugotovimo, da je bilo leto bolj posvečeno fikciji kot resničnosti – razmerje med dokumentarnimi in igrenimi filmi se namreč nagiba v prid slednjim, kar daje sluttiti, da se je Oscar Wilde, ko je zatrdil, da življenje imitira umetnost in ne obratno, morda vendarle zmotil.

Film ima med vsemi umetnostmi eno izmed bolj zahtevnih in reflektiranih občinstev. Pri tem imajo kar največ zaslug sami filmski ustvarjalci, ki vzgajajo kritičen pogled tako, da s svojimi izdelki nenehno dvigujejo prečko naših pričakovanj. Vzajemnost teh pričakovanj in njihovega preseganja je v osrčju gonilo kvalitetnega filmskega ustvarjanja. Pomembnosti vloge občinstva pa se zavedamo tudi na ministrstvu. Z Nacionalnim programom za kulturo 2014–2017 se namreč problematike slovenskega filma in avdiovizualne dejavnosti lotevamo skozi optiko, ki nam na tem in še katerem drugem kulturnem področju doslej morda ni bila najbolj domača. Motrimo jo predvsem skozi oči gledalca, zato pogosto govorimo ravno o dostopnosti filmske produkcije, vendar pa tudi nič manj o njeni kvaliteti, vrhunskosti. Zavedamo se, da so za to potrebni kar najbolj optimalni pogoji filmskega ustvarjanja, o teh pa lahko govorimo le, ko dobro delujejo vsi členi kinematografske verige. Naši ukrepi na filmskem področju enakomerno posvečajo pozornost tem členom, zato zasledujemo zelo raznolike cilje, vse od povečanja gledenosti kakovostnih kinematografskih del, večjega trga za kinematografska in avdiovizualna dela, boljše izrabe digitalnih tehnologij pa vse do ustrezne prisotnosti in umeščenosti filmske vzgoje in izobraževanja v osnovnih in srednjih šolah.

Naša rdeča nit izkazuje precej neskromne ambicije, saj govorimo o novi dobi slovenskega filma, ki pa je mogoča le s kontinuiranim in celovitim razvojem

Dear Film Viewers,
This year's yield at the 16th Festival of Slovenian film indicates an extensive film and audio-visual production, and this is despite the times that do not particularly favour filmmakers and artists in general. Looking at the current festival through numbers, it can be established that the year has been dedicated to fiction more than reality – the ratio of documentary to feature films favours the latter, which could lead to assumptions that Oscar Wilde, claiming that life imitated art and not vice-versa, might have been wrong after all.

Of all art genres, film is one with most demanding and ruminating audiences. The merit for this is mostly that of filmmakers themselves, fostering a critical view by constantly raising our expectations with their works. In the very heart of things, the reciprocity of such expectations and their overachievement is the driving force of quality filmmaking. At the Ministry, we are also aware of the audience's key role. With the National Programme for Culture 2004–2017, we have thus tackled the issue of Slovenian film and audio-visual area from the perspective that might not have been very customary in the past, neither in this area nor in any other field of culture. We have mainly approached it through the eyes of the viewer, which is why we often talk about the accessibility of film production; its quality and excellence, however, are no less important. We are aware that this calls for optimal conditions for filmmaking, which are only feasible when the complete chain of film production is in full operation. Our measures for the area of film focus equally on all the links of the chain, which is why our aims are quite diverse, ranging from an increase in the ratings for quality films, an increase of the market for cinema and audio-visual works, a better use of digital technologies, as well as sufficient presence and position of film education in primary and secondary schools.

Speaking of a new age for Slovenian film, our main aspirations are indeed not based on very modest efforts, when this can only be achieved through a confilmske kulture. Del tega razvoja je tudi obeleževanje vseh pomembnih mejnikov slovenskega filma, zato si te nove dobe ni mogoče predstavljati brez refleksije in pripoznaja v obliki vsakoletnega Festivala slovenskega filma. Čaka nas veliko dela in pri popravnem izpitu slovenske kulturne politike iz filma štejejo le najvišje ocene. V festivalskem žargonu - šteje le vesna.

tinuous and thorough development of film culture. It is part of this development to celebrate all the major landmarks of Slovenian film, which is why the new age could not be imagined not to include the reflexion and recognition contained in the annual Festival of Slovenian Film. We have much work ahead and when it comes to retaking the exam in Slovenian cultural policy for the area of film, only the highest marks count. Speaking in the festival jargon – only the Vesna counts.

Season of the Harvest

Nekatere ekonomske teorije govorijo, da če želiš biti uspešen, moraš stalno vlagati in ustvarjati ter spodbujati pogoje za rast. Varčevanje in pametno gospodarjenje sta seveda nujna, a ne za vsako ceno, temveč v okviru zmožnosti. Ko sem pred dobrima dvema letoma prevzel vodenje Slovenskega filmskega centra (SFC), smo se skupaj s strokovnimi programskimi komisijami in sodelavci odločili za ambiciozen filmski program. In ker v filmu traja normalni cikel od potrditve projekta do njegovega dokončanja do dve leti, bomo letos upravičeno "želi" sadove odločitev izpred dveh let.

Žal pa v lanskem letu zaradi koreninov rezov nismo mogli slediti že postavljenim visokim ciljem. Količinski rezultat, ki ni obetaven, bo viden šele prihodnje leto.

Že sam pogled na urnik in program festivala kaže na kvalitetni in količinski preskok produkcije. Potrjuje se dejstvo, da kriza ustvarjalnosti ne ubija, temveč jo spodbuja.

Pogled na letošnje velike festivalske premiere nam pove, da smo bili s filmi, kjer je tudi slovenski vložek, prisotni na festivalih v Berlinu, Benetkah, Sundanceu, Karlovi Vribi in Annecyju. Ob stalni prisotnosti na filmskih tržnicah v Berlinu in Cannesu to pomeni, da je slovenska kinematografija prisotna na vseh večjih mednarodnih filmskih dogodkih.

Nekateri naslovi, ki se predstavljajo na letošnjem festivalu, pa obetajo tudi vrčo kinematografsko jesen. Verjamem, da se skupaj z zvestim občinstvom vsi veselimo novih premier.

Še posebej nas veseli, da smo pet pred dvanajsto stopili tudi na vlak digitalizacije slovenskih art kinematografov in da je v investicijskem ciklu trenutno več kot deset dvoran. Tudi s tem bomo širili krog občinstva, kakor tudi tiz leta v leto večjim naborom kulturno-vzgojnih projektov s področja filma in avdiovizualne kulture.

Kajti mladi gledalci so filmsko občinstvo prihodnost.

Z upanjem me navdaja, da je ekipa na Ministrstvu za kulturo prisluhnila željam in utemeljitvam filmske stroke in SFC. Oblikan je ambiciozen osnutek Nacio-

Some economic theories predict that to be successful, one has to invest and create continuously, as well as foster the growth conditions. Naturally, being economical and a good manager is a must, but not at any cost; it is better to do so within one's means. When just over two years ago I assumed the headship of the Slovenian Film Centre (SFC), expert commissions and colleagues joined me in opting for an ambitious film programme. As it is in cinema where a normal cycle from project confirmation to its completion takes up to two years, this is the year when we shall "reap" what we sowed two years ago.

However, last year we were sadly unable to pursue our previously set high aims due to radical cuts. The consequences as regards quantities are not promising, but they shall only be clear next year.

Just a glance at the festival schedule and programme indicates a leap in production, both in terms of quality and quantity. This is to confirm the fact that rather than killing creativity, a crisis promotes it. If we consider all the major festival premieres this year, it is clear that films made with Slovenian input were present at festivals in Berlin, Venice, Sundance, Karlovy Vary and Annecy. Add to this continual presence of Slovenian cinema at film markets in Berlin and Cannes, we have proof that Slovenian cinema regularly attends all major international film events.

Some titles presented at the current festival also promise a hot autumn in cinemas. I believe it is not only us but also loyal audiences who are looking forward to new premiere screenings.

It is particularly satisfying that we have boarded the train of digitalising Slovenian art cinemas just minutes before midnight, with more than 10 cinemas currently being included in the investment cycle. Together with a growing number of cultural educational projects from fields of film and audio-visual culture, this too will help expand our audiences. Because young audiences are the film audiences of the future.

It fills me with hope to know that the Ministry of nalnega programa za kulturo na filmskem področju, v pripravi so spremembe krovnega zakona. Če se bodo udejanjile tudi denarne spodbude za tuje produkcije, to pomeni, da obračamo ladjo v pravo smer. Vse to seveda zahteva ogromno energije, predanosti, časa ter seveda kreativnosti.

Ob tej priložnosti bi se želel zahvaliti za sodelovanje in podporo tako sodelavcem na Filmskem centru, članom sveta in strokovnim programskim komisijam, kot tudi vsem filmarkam in filmarjem, ki nas s svojimi pobudami, filmi in projektmi navduhujejo in spodbujajo k predanemu in še boljšemu delu v prihodnosti.

Direktor Slovenskega filmskega centra

Culture has listened to the desires and reasonings of film professionals and the SFC. An ambitious draft National Programme for Culture for the area of film has been devised, and changes to the framework act are being developed. If monetary support for foreign productions should also be implemented, then our boat is being turned in the right direction. All this, however, requires a great deal of energy, commitment, time, and, of course, creativity.

On this occasion, I wish to thank my colleagues at the Film Centre, council members and expert programme commissions for their cooperation and support, as well as all the filmmakers for their initiatives, films and projects that inspire us and encourage us to strive for even greater commitment and efforts in the future.

Leto slovenskega filma

A Year of Slovenian Film

Leto 2013 je nedvomno leto slovenskega filma. Februarja je s prvim javnim odzivom na imenovanje novega direktorja FS Viba film začela delovati Filmska inicijativa ZASLOFILM. Aprila je Filmska inicijativa novemu ministru za kulturo predala dokument z naslovom »Smernice razvoja slovenske kinematografije«, junija pa še pripombe na filmski del Nacionalnega programa za kulturo 2014–2017. V tem trenutku se piše nova zakonodaja in v Portorožu bomo v času festivala že poznali osnutke sistemskih smernic razvoja slovenske kinematografije.

Prav zgoraj našteto predstavlja glavni razlog, da sem se z ekipo zagnanih sodelavk in sodelavcev odzval povabilu direktorja Slovenskega filmskega centra in sprejel nalogu organizacije 16. Festivala slovenskega filma. Glavni cilj, ki smo si ga zadali ob sprejemu te odgovorne rabe, je bil, da festival ustvarjamo za filmske ustvarjalce in skupaj z njimi, da tako omogočimo prostor za refleksijo in dialog, za strokovna predavanja in kvalitetno zabavo, in če nam pri tem še uspe promovirati kvalitetne slovenske filme, smo napravili dovolj. Naša vizija niso rdeče preproge in VIP zabave, temveč spoštovanje drznega filmskega ustvarjanja, filmska vzgoja in sproščena gastronomsko-enološka izkušnja lokalnega prostora. In ker že omenjam prostor, v Istri je običaj ali kot mu pravijo Istrani »užanca«, da se obiskovalca obvezno postreže z vinom, kruhom, oljčnim oljem, pršutom in se mu na koncu zagode in zapoje kakšno domačo, zato se bomo tega držali tudi mi, s ciljem, da bi vam omogočili čim bolj ugodno spremjanje izjemno kvalitetne dveletne produkcije slovenskih filmskih ustvarjalik in ustvarjalcev.

Na letošnji festival se je prijavilo neverjetnih 136 filmov in med njimi smo jih v skupinskem procesu selekcije 42 izbrali v tekmovalne programe in 21 v netekmovalni program. V spremjevalnem filmskem programu predstavljamo še tri programe otroških in mladinskih filmov, retrospektivo letošnjega Badjurovega nagrajenca in dva filma ob stoletnici rojstva Františka Čapa. Ob filmskem programu smo v sodelovanju z 2013 is, without a doubt, a year of Slovenian film. In February, their first public response to the appointment of the new director of the Viba Film studio marked the start of the ZASLOFILM Film Initiative. In April, the Film Initiative presented Slovenia's new culture minister with the document entitled "Guidelines for the development of Slovenian cinema", and in June with their comments on the film section of the National Programme for Culture 2004–2017. New legislation is being drawn up as we speak, and draft systemic guidelines for the development of Slovenian cinema will have been made public by the time the festival starts in Portorož.

All of the above is the main reason why a team of passionate colleagues and I responded to the invitation of the director of the Slovenian Film Centre and took on the job of organising the 16th Festival of Slovenian Film. The main goal we set when assuming this responsible toil was to make a festival for and with filmmakers, providing space for deliberation and dialogue, lectures for professionals, and good fun, and if we can also promote good Slovenian films, we will have done enough. Our vision does not include red carpet and VIP parties; it is about our respect for daring filmmaking, about film education, and about local gastronomic & enological delights. And speaking of local, one of the traditions (or "užanca", as the locals say) in Istria is to welcome a visitor by serving wine, bread, olive oil, and prosciutto, and topping this off by playing and singing a tune. So this is what we will do, with the aim of creating the best possible environment for you to enjoy the first-rate films created by Slovenian filmmakers over the past two years.

This year's festival received an incredible total of 136 films, of which 42 were selected in a collective selection process for competition programmes and 21 for the Panorama programme. The additional programme features three children and youth film programmes, a retrospective of the winner of this year's Metod Badjura Award, and two films to celebrate the 100th birth anniversary of František Čap. In addition to Media Desk Slovenija pripravili tudi ambiciozen strokovni del, namenjen profesionalcem – izpostavljam in vas še posebno vabim na predstavitev modelov finančiranja češkega filmskega fonda ter na okroglo mizo o filmskih festivalih v regiji.

Na koncu se zahvaljujem vsem partnerjem in pokroviteljem, brez katerih festivala ne bi mogli izpeljati tako, kot smo si ga zamislili. Naj se pridružim tudi čestitkam Karpu Godini, letošnjemu prejemniku Badjurove nagrade za življensko delo na filmskem področju, in vas povabim, da si v Avditoriju ogledate razstavo o njegovem življenju in delu.

film screenings, we have put together, in collaboration with Media Desk Slovenija, an ambitious events programme for professionals. Let me take the opportunity and bring to attention, and invite you all to the presentation of Czech film funds' financing models, and the discussion about film festivals in the region.

To conclude, I would like to thank all our partners and sponsors, without whom the festival would not have been what it is. # Karpo Godina: Prejemnik nagrade Metoda Bajture za življenjsko delo filmskega ustvarjalca Recipient of Metod Badjura Lifetime Achievement Award for Filmmakers

OBRAZLOŽITEV KOMISIJE ZA IZBOR NAGRADE

Slovenski filmski center podeljuje nagrado Metoda Bajture za življenjsko delo 2013 gospodu KARPU GODINI za njegovo vsestransko filmsko ustvarjanje. Kot režiser, scenarist, montažer in direktor fotografije ter eden ključnih protagonistov jugoslovanskega črnega vala je močno zaznamoval ne samo slovensko, ampak tudi svetovno kinematografijo.

Karpo Godina je študiral režijo na AGRFT v Ljubljani, kjer je leta 1966 diplomiral. Svojo filmsko pot je pričel v začetku šestdesetih let 20. stoletja s serijo kratkih eksperimentalnih filmov, med katerimi velja omeniti Sonce, vsespološno sonce iz leta 1967, Piknik v nedeljo iz leta 1967, Gratinirani možgani Pupilije Ferkeverk iz leta 1970, Zdravi ljudje za razvedrilo iz leta 1971, O ljubezenskih veščinah ali film s 14441 kvadrati iz leta 1972.

Leta 1968 ga je režiser Želimir Žilnik povabil k sodelovanju pri filmu Zgodnja dela (Rani radovi), kjer se je Karpo Godina podpisal kot direktor fotografije, snemalec in montažer. Leta 1969 je bil film prikazan na filmskem festivalu v Berlinu in prejel glavno nagrado, zlatega medveda. Sledila so izjemno uspešna sodelovanja z drugimi predstavniki jugoslovanskega črnega vala, kot so Bato Čengić, Lordan Zafranović, Dušan Makavejev in Živojin Pavlović, ki so Karpa Godino vpisala na zemljovid svetovne kinematografije.

Leta 1980 je kot režiser, direktor fotografije, snemalec in montažer posnel svoj celovečerni prvenec Splav meduze. Evropsko združenje direktorjev fotografije IMAGO je ob 100-letnici filma Splav meduze uvrstilo med 100 najpomembnejših evropskih filmov.

JURY COMMENTARY

The Slovenian Film Centre awards the Metod Bajura Lifetime Achievement Award 2013 to Mr KARPO GODINA for his versatile creativity in film. Director, screenwriter, editor and director of photography, as well as one of the main protagonists of the "Yugoslav Black Wave", he has left a tremendous mark on film art, Slovenian as well as global.

Karpo Godina studied film, TV radio and theatre direction at the Ljubljana Academy for Theatre, Radio, Film and Television, where he graduated in 1966. He began working in film in early 1960s when he made a series of short experimental films, including Sun, Universal Sun in 1967, Picnic On Sunday in 1967, The Gratinated Brain Of Pupilija Ferkeverk in 1970, Litany Of Happy People in 1971, About the Art of Love or a Film with 14441 Frames in 1972, to mention the major ones.

In 1968, director Želimir Žilnik invited him to participate in the making of the film Early Works (Rani radovi), Godina assuming the roles of the director of photography, cinematographer and editor. In 1969, the film was screened at Berlin Film Festival and won the Golden Bear Award. This was followed by several successful collaborations with other representatives of the Yugoslav Black Wave, such as Bato Čengić, Lordan Zafranović, Dušan Makavejev and Živojin Pavlović, with the help of whom Karpo Godina appeared on the global map of cinema.

In 1980 he made his first feature film The Raft of the Medusa, working as the director, director of photography, cinematographer and editor. To celebrate Leta 1982 je sledil celovečerni film Rdeči boogie, leta 1990 pa celovečerni film Umetni raj, ki je bil predstavljen tudi na najpomembnejšem filmskem festivalu v Cannesu.

Ustvarjanje Karpa Godine je poetično navdahnjeno ter izvirno in avtorsko prepoznavno, kar je odlika največjih filmskih avtorjev. Njegovi filmski protagonisti so vedno obravnavani s tankočutnostjo in z ljubezni, filmi, ki jih odlikuje eksperimentalen pristop, pa s svojimi sporočili ostajajo tudi družbeno kritični. Filmsko poetiko Karpa Godine odlikuje prepoznaven, ironičen, konsistenten in brezkompromisni pristop, s katerim je ustvaril svojevrsten in originalen avtorski podpis. S svojim vsestranskim ustvarjanjem je dokazal, da je celovit filmski avtor, ki se je uveljavil v svetovnem merilu ter priporočil k vzponu najprej jugoslovanske, nato še slovenske sedme umetnosti.

Karpo Godina je več let deloval kot pedagog in profesor na AGRFT. Svoje izkušnje in znanje je posredoval novim generacijam režiserjev in pri tem kot mentor, najprej za režijo, nato za kamero, sodeloval tudi pri nastajanju številnih študentskih filmov.

Prejel je več kot 40 domačih in tujih nagrad, med drugimi leta 1979 nagrado Prešernovega sklada ter leta 2006 Prešernovo nagrado za življensko delo. Njegova dela so bila prikazana na številnih retrospektivah širom sveta.

Z nagrado Metoda Badjure za življensko delo se slovenska filmska stroka priklanja izjemnemu filmskemu avtorju Karpu Godini in njegovemu delu.

100 years of film, Imago, the European Federation of National Cinematographers, included The Raft of the Medusa among the 100 most important European films.

His debut feature film was followed by Red Boogie in 1982 and Artificial Paradise in 1990, the latter of which was also presented at the prominent Cannes film festival.

The work of Karpo Godina combines poetic inspiration, originality and his specific touch, which is a mark of the greatest filmmakers. His leading characters are always treated with sensitivity and love, and the films always communicate social criticism, while also showing experimental approach. The poetics of Godina's films is marked by his signature ironic, consistent and uncompromising approach, which has developed into his unique and original style. With his versatile creativity he has proven to be an all-round filmmaker. By making his presence felt globally, he contributed to the rise of Yugoslav, and later also Slovenian cinema.

For a number of years, Karpo Godina served as a teacher and lecturer at the Ljubljana Academy for Theatre, Radio, Film and Television. He passed his experience and knowledge to new generations of directors, and as a mentor, first in direction, then in cinematography, also supervised the making of numerous student films.

He has received over 40 awards at home and abroad, including the Slovenian Prešeren Fund Award (1979), and Prešeren Lifetime Achievement Award (2006). His works were presented at many retrospective screenings across the globe.

By presenting the Metod Badjura Lifetime Achievement Award to Karpo Godina, Slovenian film professionals wish to bow to this extraordinary filmmaker and his works.

Toni Riff, rock zvezda iz 80. let, ki je med vojno prišel v Slovenijo in se poročil s svojo takratno oboževalko Sonjo, se že dve desetletji ne premakne z mrtve točke. Preživlja ga Sonja, ki dela na vrsti liniji, medtem ko Toni dan na dan igra tetris. Ena njenih stalnih telefonskih strank, hotelir Maks, se ponudi, da organizira nastop njenega moža v svojem hotelu na slovenski obali. Sonja prepriča Tonija, da se za konec tedna odpeljeta tja, a mu koncerta ne omeni. Ko prideta pred hotel Adria, polepljen s plakati za koncert, Toni dojamе, da ga je žena pripeljala pod pretvezo. Zapre se v sobo in se ne odziva na Sonjine prošnje, ki v koncertu vidi edini izhod iz njegove depresije.

Toni Riff, an 80's rock star who moved to Slovenia during the war and married his fan Sonja, has been stuck in a standstill for two decades. Sonja earns their living by working as a phone-sex operator, while Toni spends his days playing Tetris. One of her regular clients, hotel manager Maks, offers to organise a gig for him in his hotel on the Slovenian coast. Sonja gets Toni to go there with her for a weekend, but fails to mention the concert. Upon their arrival to the Adria hotel, covered with posters for the gig, Toni realises his wife had tricked him. He locks himself into the room and refuses to hear the begging of Sonja, who sees the gig as the only way out of his depression.

Marko, Adi, Aco in Dejan čamijo na klopcí pred blokom na Fužinama. Marku najeda, ker je nehal trenirati, pa ker ga voditeljica ne jebe pet posto, pa ker ga bo Radovan iztambural, če izve, da je nehal trenirati. Adiju mori, ker se mu je burazer Sanel zadrogiral, pa ker Mirsadu dol visi za to in raje guzi kelnerice nekje v Avstriji. Acotu teži Makarovička, on pa bi rad prefukal Damjanoviča. Dejan se je uprnil, ker se hoče Sonja preseliti v Slovenske Konjice. Potem uletijo cajkiči. In njihov svet začne počasi razpadat na prafaktorje.

GORAN VOJNOVIĆ

Filmski režiser, pisatelj in kolumnist. Njegov romaneski prvenec Čefurji raus! je bil prodan v sedemnajst tisoč izvodih, osvojil je nagrado Prešernovega sklada in nagrado kresnik za najboljši roman leta ter bil preveden v šest jezikov. Po njem je bila narejena tudi uspešna gledališka predstava, ki je imela že več kot 300 ponovitev, oktobra 2013 pa bo luč sveta ugledal tudi film Čefurji raus! To bo Goranov drugi celovečerni film, po tem, ko je leta 2010 posnel Piran Pirano. Leta 2012 je izdal drugi roman Jugoslavija, moja dežela in zanj prejel svojega drugega kresnika.

Marko, Adi, Aco and Dejan are vegging out on a bench in the ill-famed Ljubljana suburbs of Fužine. Marko is annoyed for having quit sports, and because the TV presenter totally blanks him, and because Radovan will kick the shit out of him if he finds out he quit sports. Adi is pissed because Sanel is doped and because Mirsad doesn't give a rat's ass about it and prefers to fuck waitresses up in Austria. Aco is having a hard time from the Makarovič woman, and wants to duff up Damjanovič. Dejan is scared shitless, because Sonja wants to move to Slovenske Konjice. Then come rozzers. And their world slowly starts to fall into pieces.

»Dva jezika. Dve noči. Ena skrivnost.«

Zaradi tehničnih težav letalo na poti z Danske v Grčijo pristane na slovenskem letališču. Ena izmed potnic je tudi Iben (25), prelepo in skrivnostno dekle z Danske. Potnike v hotel odpelje Tina (25), mlada Ljubljancanka, ki v okviru poletne službe vozi hotelski shuttle. Iben Tino prosi, da jo zapelje na kratek ogled mesta, in Tina privoli, čeprav se ji prošnja tihega dekleta zdi nenavadna.

Iskrena zgodbota o dveh, ki se spoznata v povsem neprimerinem trenutku, a sta navkljub temu malce srečnejši.

NEJC GAZVODA

“Two languages. Two nights. One secret.”

Due to a technical problem, a plane from Denmark heading to Greece lands at a Slovene airport. Among the passengers is Iben (25), a quiet, beautiful young Danish girl. The passengers are taken to a hotel in Ljubljana and this is how she meets Tina (25), whose summer job is to drive a shuttle. Iben asks Tina to give her a tour around Ljubljana and Tina agrees, even though the request seems a bit odd. This is an honest story about two people meeting precisely when they should not have – but still end up a bit happier because they did.

Kako označiti Marka Breclja? Avtor dokumentarnega zapisa Janez Burger se je rešil s stavkom: »Marko Breclj je poezija. Poesija, ki je življenje. Poezije pa se ne da ubesediti drugače kot z verzi.«

Marko Breclj je skupna točka v egocentričnem svetu pop kulture, kjer je težko doseči konsenz o tem, kdo je bil začetnik drugačnega razmišljanja. Njegov »mehki« terorizem je terorizem poetične angažiranosti, ki je kot iniciacija pripeljala do radikalnih sprememb. Sprememb v glavah. Možnosti, da je možno.

Sistem se je spremenil, družba pa se ni, in tako je Marko Breclj še vedno enak. S svojo mehko-teroristično poetično akcijo še vedno ostaja na okopih človeštva. Zdravega razuma.

JANEZ BURGER

Rojen leta 1965 v Kranju. Otroštvo preživel v Železnikih. Študiral na Ekonomski fakulteti v Ljubljani in na FAMU v Pragi, kjer je leta 1996 diplomiral iz filmske in televizijske režije. Živi in dela v Ljubljani.

How do you describe Marko Breclj? The author of the documentary, Janez Burger, got away by saying, "Marko Breclj is poetry. Poetry that is life. And poetry cannot be put in words other than that verse."

Marko Breclj is a point of convergence for the self-centred world of pop culture, where it is not easy to come to an agreement about the real pioneer of alternative thinking. His "soft" terrorism is terrorism of poetic engagement, acting as initiation to result in radical change. Change in the minds. The possibility that it is possible.

The system has changed, but the society hasn't, so Marko Breclj remains the way he was. With his soft terrorist poetic action, he remains in the trenches of humanity. Of common sense.

JANEZ BURGER

Born in Kranj in 1965. He spent his childhood in Železniki. Studied at the Ljubljana Faculty of Economics, and FAMU, Prague, where he graduated in Film and TV Directing in 1996. He lives and works in Ljubljana.

Nastopajoči/Featuring

Ulay, Marina Abramović, Chrissie Illés, Chris Dercon, Roselee Goldberg, Saskia Bos, Charlemagne Palestine, Vlado Kreslin, Chuck Close, Sean Kelly, Henk "Hanky Panky" Schiffmacher

Kamera leta dni spremjava Ulaya, radikalnega konceptualnega umetnika iz Amsterdama, ki od leta 2009 živi v Ljubljani. Ko so bili pogovori o filmu že v teku, je izvedel, da ima raka. To je spremenoilo vse plane. Prvi prizori so bili posneti novembra 2011 na Onkološkem inštitutu v Ljubljani, kjer je Ulay prejemal kemoterapijo. Ko se mu je zdravje malo izboljšalo, se je odločil, da obiše svoje prijatelje po svetu, kamera pa ga je spremjalna na tem posvetitvenem obredu: v Berlinu na premiero Marininega filma, potem v New York in na koncu v njegovo mesto, Amsterdam. Ulay to bolezen tretira kot svoj največji in najpomembnejši projekt v življenu, zato tudi naslov filma Projekt: rak.

DAMJAN KOZOLE

Rojen v Brežicah leta 1964. Njegovi filmi so bili predvajani v kinodistribuciji v več kot tridesetih državah in prikazani na pomembnih mednarodnih filmskih festivalih, kjer so prejeli številne nagrade in nominacije. Slovenka je postal najbolj prodajan slovenski film, Rezervni deli so bili nominirani za zlatega medveda na Berlinalu 2003, dva njegova filma pa sta bila proglašena za slovenska filma leta. Damjan Kozole je član Evropske filmske akademije in dobitnik Župančičeve nagrade leta 2008, ki jo mesto Ljubljana podeljuje za izjemne dosežke v umetnosti in kulturi.

We follow one year in the life of Ulay, an Amsterdam-born radical conceptual artist, who has lived in Ljubljana since 2009. While arrangements for the film were already under way, Ulay learned he had cancer. This changed the plan completely. The first scenes were filmed in November 2011 at the Ljubljana Institute of Oncology, where Ulay received chemotherapy. When he got better, he decided to visit his friends around the world, and the camera followed him on this farewell ritual: to Berlin to see premiere screening of Marina's film, to New York, and finally to his city, Amsterdam. Ulay sees the disease as his biggest and most important project, thus the film title Project Cancer.

DAMJAN KOZOLE

Born in Brežice in 1964. His films were released theatrically in more than 30 countries and shown at major international film festivals, where they received a number of awards and nominations. Slovenian Girl went to become the top selling Slovenian film, Spare Parts was nominated for the Golden Bear at Berlinale in 2003, two of his films were declared Slovenian films of the year. Damjan Kozole is member of the European Film Academy, and the winner of the 2008 Župančič Award, presented by the City of Ljubljana for outstanding achievements in art and culture.

Leta 1971 je 28-letni K. G. s kamero potoval po Vojvodini in posnel nenavaden »film ceste« z naslovom Imam jednu kuću, ki je danes ohranjen samo fragmentarno. Štirideset let kasneje se po istih poteh poda neka druga kamera, ki sestavlja in si predstavlja potovanje mladega K. G.

In 1971, K. G., 28, takes his camera on a trip around Vojvodina, and makes an unusual "road movie". Called Imam jednu kuću, only fragments of the film have survived to this day. Forty years on, another camera makes the same journey, putting together and imagining the travels of the young K. G.

O Tisnikarju se ne da govoriti, ne da bi govorili tudi o svetu, v katerem je živel in delal. Skozi vpetost v banalno okolje vsakdanjika in predvsem delo v prosektri spoznamo grobe obrise Tisnikarjeve figure. Ob iskrenem pričevanju ljudi, ki so mu bili blizu in jih praviloma ne zakrivamo z drugo sliko, tečejo nedialoški prizori, delno zasnovani po Tisnikarjevih lastnih besedah. Podajajo atmosfero prostorov Tisnikarjeve samote, sprehodov in dela v tistem času dneva, ko je človek najlaže sam; ponoči ali v zgodnjem jutru. Film skuša gledalcu pričarati oris Tisnikarjevih (notranjih) svetov, v katerih sta se genialnost in magičnost prepletali z rutino navadnega človeka.

SONJA PROSENC
Diplomirala na FDV, program novinarstvo – kulturologija. V letih 2008 in 2009 se je udeležila Berlinale in Sarajevo Talent Campusa in bila med izbranimi za 9-mesečni TorinoFilmLab. Po kratkih filmih Nič novega, nič pretiranega in Jutro ter dokumentarcu Mož s krokarjem - Dokumentarni portret slikarja Jožeta Tisnikarja končuje celovečerni prvenec Drevo. Projekt je bil razvit na EAVE 2012, kjer je sodelovala kot scenaristka. Kot oblikovalka sodeluje pri filmih drugih avtorjev (Vlado Škafar, Jan Cvitkovič ...).

You cannot speak of Tisnikar without also speaking of the world in which he lived and worked. It is through his being anchored in the banal everyday reality, but particularly through his work in the department of pathology that we get to know the rough contours of Tisnikar's image. Sincere accounts of the people who were close to him, mostly left uninterrupted by other shots, mix with silent scenes partly based on Tisnikar's own accounts, conveying the feel of Tisnikar's solitary spaces, his walks and work in the time of the day when one finds it best to be alone; at night or in early mornings. The film tries to give an idea of Tisnikar's (internal) worlds in which his genius and magic intertwine with the routine of the common man.

SONJA PROSENC
Graduated in Journalism and Cultural Studies from the Ljubljana Faculty of Social Sciences. In 2008 and 2009 she took part in the Berlinale and Sarajevo Talent Campuses, and was selected for the 9-month TorinoFilmLab. Film o Damirju Avdiču, umetniku besede, ki govorji o svetu, kot ga vidi in razume. Brez odvečnih komentarjev. Besede so ostre kot britev, neposredne kot strel v glavo, iskrene kot srce. Na odru stoji sam, s kitaro in z glasom. Poje o vojni in posledicah vojne. Vojna, ki je ostala v ljudeh. Vojna, ki še vedno in vedno bolj kaže svoje posledice. Vojna, ki je povsod enaka, ne glede na geografske razlike. Traumatična, grozeča in psihična razpoloženja zato ostajajo prisotna.

Film Pravi človek za kapitalizem je najprej zgodbva o posledicah vojne na Balkanu, skozi film pa se z Damirjevimi besedili vse bolj osredotočamo na težave, ki jih prinaša kapitalizem.

DUŠAN MORAVEC

Film about Damir Avdić, artist of words who speaks about the world as he sees and understands it. With no superfluous comments. Words as sharp as a razor blade, as straight as a bullet, as honest as a heart. On the stage he is alone, with his guitar and his voice. Singing about the war and its aftermath. The war that people still carry in them. The war that is still, and increasingly so, showing its consequences. War, which is always the same, regardless of geography. The trauma, menace, and psychosis of the atmosphere remain. The Right Man for Capitalism is above all a story about the aftermath of the Yugoslav Wars. Yet Damir's lyrics shift the focus more and more to the problems brought on by capitalism.

V skladbah sestava Tamikrest se zrcali hrenenje mladih Tuaregov, »puščavski blues« izvajajo na številnih koncertih po Evropi in ob domačih tabornih ognjih na jugu Alžirije, tik ob meji z Malijem. Tu se borijo za svojo neodvisno državo Azavad. Vendar zadivja vojna, na oblast pridejo islamisti, nekateri od mlajših Tuaregov se izrečejo za pripadnike Al Kaid, ozemlje pretresajo nasilje in interesi mednarodnih korporacij. Glasbeniki snemajo tako dogodke okoli sebe kot tudi intimne doživljaje, v dvajsetih mesecih ustvarijo zbirko posnetkov o domovini, kot jo opevajo v svojih skladbah o spominu in ljubezni. Razpeto med izgubo iluzij in svitanjem novih časov.

Človek si je vedno prizadeval, da bi se osvobodil od narave. Zgodovina filozofije je zgodbba o refleksiji tega tragičnega prizadevanja. S približevanjem novim tehnološkim mejam smo se znašli v novih protislovijih. Človek ni bil od narave nikoli bolj oddaljen, hkrati pa ga ta kot vrsto nikoli ni bolj ogrožala. Zdi se, kot da je vprašanje preživetja naše civilizacije postala stvar intimnih odločitev njenih posameznikov.

ANJA MEDVED

Autorica dokumentarnih filmov, intermedijskih projektov in gledaliških predstav. Diplomirala je iz gledališke in radijske režije na Akademiji za gledališče, radio, film in televizijo v Ljubljani. Je soustanoviteljica Zavoda Kinokašča in večletna sodelavka čezmejne organizacije Kinoatelje (Nova Gorica – Gorica), v kateri vodi program zbiranja in ohranjanja spominov.

Humans have always striven to free themselves from nature. The history of philosophy is a story of reflections on this tragic effort. Approaching new technological limits, we have found ourselves in new contradictions. Humans have never before been so distant from nature, yet nature has never been a greater threat for humans as a species. It seems the survival of our civilisation is now about intimate choices of its individual members.

ANJA MEDVED

Deprivilegirano mesto se loteva ambicioznega podvigha, s katerim si želi povrniti izgubljeni ugled. Urbani vrtovi so nastajajoča dežela prihodnosti. Boj med vrtom-idealom in realnostjo, med utopijo njegovih ideologov in preprostostjo rok, ki ga, med bohotenjem in umiranjem nekih drugih bitij, obdelujejo. Filmska meditacija o razburkanih časih, ko se je dvigoval Maribor, o junakih, sadikah in človeški norosti. Geneza v štirih letnih časih: eno leto snemanja, eno leto nastanka družbe.

URBAN ZORKO

Rojen v Ljubljani leta 1983. Leta 2012 je na Filozofski fakulteti Univerze v Ljubljani diplomiral iz primerjalne književnosti in literarne teorije. Od poznih najstniških let dalje je dejaven v različnih vrstah medijev kot novinar, publicist, avtor oddaj, serij, kratkih filmov ter filmski in literarni kritik. Polje njegovega zanimanja je zgoba, pa naj bo gledališka drama, radijski govor ali literarna ali filmska priповed kot metafora politične, družbene, intimne realnosti in njenih zagat. Bil je član rezidenčne skupine filmskih ustvarjalcev pri projektu Evropska prestolnica kulture v Mariboru.

An underprivileged city is starting an ambitious undertaking to restore the lost reputation. Urban gardens are a land of the future in the making. A struggle between garden as an ideal and reality, between its ideologists' utopia and the simplicity of hands which work there amid exuberance and death of some other beings. A meditation on film about the turbulent times of Maribor rising up, about heroes, seedlings, and human folly. A genesis in four seasons: a year of filming, a year in the making of a society.

URBAN ZORKO

Born in 1983 in Ljubljana. In 2012 he graduated in Comparative Literature and Literary Theory at the Faculty of Arts at the University of Ljubljana. Since his late teens he has worked in numerous kinds of media as a journalist, author of articles, shows, series, short films, and as a film and literary critic. His field of interest is a story, be it a theatre piece, a radio speech, or a literary or film narrative as metaphor for political, social, intimate reality and its problems. He was a member of the residential group of filmmakers at the European Capital of Culture in Maribor.

tukaj, čeprav kdaj pomislim, da bi šel kam drugam. Predvsem zato, ker me pozimi zebe. Delno pa tudi, ker bi rad videl svet.
Kmalu bom končal AGRFT.

TOSJA FLAKER BERCE

I was born in Ljubljana on 22 August 1987. I have been living there since, although I sometimes imagine going somewhere else. Especially because I'm cold in the winter. And also because I'd like to see the world. I'll soon be graduating from the Academy

Z odliko je opravil prve 4 zakramente. Čakajo ga še mnogi izzivi, a na koncu bo moral tudi on umreti (verjetno).

Klemen, a teenage kid, is pretty fond of his skateboard, and very fond of his "just friend" Anja. They spend a lot of time together, waiting for something to happen – perhaps even between the two of them.

PETER BIZJAK

Passed the first 4 sacraments with honours. He has got many more challenges ahead of him, although ultimately he too will have to die (presumably).

Children and Youth Films for Schools

Film je ena izmed najbolj priljubljenih umetnostnih zvrst med mladimi. Na Festivalu slovenskega filma zato želimo s posebnim brezplačnim programom filmskih projekcij tudi najmlajšim gledalcem približati kulturo, bogastvo in pestrost slovenskega filma ter slovenske filmske ustvarjalce.

Program, v katerega smo vključili dva najbolj priljubljena slovenska mladinska filma in izbor kratkih slovenskih animiranih filmov, je namenjen predvsem otrokom, ki obiskujejo osnovno šolo (starost 7+). Program kratkih animiranih filmov pa je primeren tudi za predšolske otroke (starost 4+). Filmske projekcije za najmlajše bomo pospremili tudi s strokovnim pedagoškim pogovorom o(b) filmu.

Among young people, film is one of the most popular art genres. We have thus introduced a special free-of-charge programme of film screenings to the Festival of Slovenian Film to bring the culture, richness and variety of Slovenian film and Slovenian filmmakers closer to our youngest visitors.

Featuring two of the most popular Slovenian youth films and a selection of short Slovenian animated films, the programme is particularly aimed at primary school children (aged 7+). The programme of short animated films is also suitable for preschool children (aged 4+). Films screenings for our youngest spectators will be followed by expert-led educational session about the films.

Igrači/Cast David Sluga (Tomaž), Kaja Štiglic (Milena), Boris Kralj (Luka), Marjana Karner (mama/Mother), Dare Valič (oče/Father), Majda Potokar (zdravnica/Doctor), Vesna Jevnikar (medicinska sestra/Nurse)

Dvanajstletni Tomaž preživlja svoje zadnje otroško poletje. V igrah ob morju, še posebej v sporih s tolpami iz Portoroža in Pirana, mu uspe pozabiti tudi na nesporazume med staršema, ki živita ločeno. Sprti otroci se združijo, ko ugotovijo, da njihovemu skupnemu prijatelju, ribiču Luki, nekdo kraje školjke iz bližnjega gojišča. S pomočjo Tomazevega superračunalnika Vedija otroci uspešno odkrijejo in premagajo tatovo školjk.

Stari ribič v zahvalo in v slovo Tomažu podari školjko. Na ta način bo lahko vedno, ko bo poslušal šumjenje morja v njej, osvežil spomine na poletne dogodivščine, na svojo prvo ljubezen, prvi dotik in dobre prijatelje. Film je leta 1986 prejel tri nagrade: glavno nagrado na filmskem festivalu Giffoni Valle Piana-Salerno v Italiji, glavno nagrado na festivalu v Saint Malouju v Franciji in glavno nagrado v Szegedinu na Madžarskem.

TUGO ŠTIGLIC

Kot režiser je debitiral s kratkim filmom Lesar bom (1980) in se nato uveljavil kot režiser kratkih igranih in dokumentarnih filmov. Njegov celovečerni prvenec, mladinski film Poletje v školjki (1986), je postal domača uspešnica. Posnel je še vrsto celovečernih in televizijskih filmov, nazadnje je po poviesti Franceta Bevka posnel mladinski TV film Črni bratje (2010).

Thomaž, 12, is enjoying his last boyhood summer. Playing on the sea shore and fighting rival groups from the neighbouring towns, he manages to forget about the disagreements between his parents, who are separated. When the kids find out somebody is stealing shellfish from the nearby farm belonging to Luka, their fisherman friend, the rival groups unite to discover the thief – and succeed thanks to Tomaz's supercomputer Vedi. To thank Tomaž and bid him farewell, the old fisherman gives him a seashell. Each time Tomaž listens to the whispering sea inside it, he can remember his summer adventures, his first love, the first touch, and good friends. In 1986, the film won three awards: the Grand Prix at the Giffoni Valle Piana-Salerno Film Festival, the Grand Prix at Saint Malou, France, and the Grand Prix in Szegedin, Hungary.

TUGO ŠTIGLIC

(Ljubljana, 1946) is an art history graduate of the Faculty of Arts in Ljubljana, and son of one of the most prominent Slovenian directors France Štiglic. He started his career as a director with the short film Lesar bom (1980), and became known for his short fiction films and documentaries. The youth film A Summer in a Sea-Shell (1986), his feature debut, went to become a hit. Štiglic made a number of other feature films and TV dramas, most recently Črni bratje (2010), a youth TV adaptation of a novelette by France Bevk.

Program slovenskih kratkih animiranih filmov (43 min)/
Slovenian animated shorts (43 min)

V Sloveniji nastajajo kakovostni animirani filmi in prav je, da jih otroci spoznajo. Kljub kasnejšemu začetku ustvarjanja animiranega filma pri nas so nekateri avtorji za seboj pustili osupljiv opus. Mnogi izmed njih ustvarjajo še danes. V pedagoškem pogovoru z avtorji po projekciji lahko otroci iz prve roke izvedo, kako nastanejo priljubljene »risanke«.

Program slovenskih kratkih animiranih filmov je sestavil Kinodvor (Kinobalon).

Good animation films are being produced in Slovenia, and it is only right that children should know them. Despite a late start of the Slovenian animation, some authors have created impressive bodies of work. Some of them are still making films today.

In the educational discussion with the authors after the screening, children get a chance to find out first-hand how the popular “cartoons” are being made.

This programme of Slovenian animated shorts was compiled by Kinodvor (Kinobalon).

When Bedanec takes revenge and takes Kosobrin captive, Kekec decides to discover Bedanec’s hideout and save the good herbalist. Followed by two sequels, Good Luck, Kekec (1963) and Kekec’s Tricks (1968), Kekec went to become a true national landmark. # Piran – biser slovenskega primorja

Piran – The Pearl of Slovenian Coast

Kratki film Piran – biser slovenskega primorja (režija František Čap, produkcija Viba film Ljubljana, leto produkcije 1965) ni le eden izmed slovenskih kratkih filmov iz bogate, skoraj sedemdesetletne bire in tudi ni zgolj turistično-propagandni izdelek, kot to morda nakaže njegov naslov. František Čap, češki režiser, čigar delovanje je vtišnilo globoko sled v mlado slovensko kinematografijo, je za konec svojega filmskega ustvarjanja v Sloveniji (Jugoslaviji) posnel kratek homage mestu, ki je postal njegov drugi dom in, na njegovo željo, tudi zadnje počivališče.

Ob ostrih zvokih Tartinijevega Vražjega trilčka je s svojo montažno virtuoznostjo zarisal portret srednjevškega obmorskega mesteca, njegovo barvito zgodovino in sodobni utrip, sožitje njegovih prebivalcev s čudovito sredozemsko arhitekturo in morjem, ki jo obdaja.

Ta malo mojstrovinu je tudi »Frantino« slovo od slovenske filmske srenje, ne vselej prijazno naklonjene in ne dovolj hvaležne za njegov dragocen prispevek prav v kritičnih letih oblikovanja in dozrevanja nacionalne kinematografije. Zdi se, kot da je hotel še enkrat pokazati svojo spretnost dinamičnega kadriranja, funkcionalnega premikanja kamere, ritmične montaže, prelivanja sporočila v razkošje gibljivih podob. Ob gledanju zaključnega prizora, v katerem se »Žanova« (snemalec Ivan Marinček) kamera na hitrem čolnu oddaljuje od piranskega polotoka, se porodi misel, da stoji na krovu drobna postava mojstra »Frante«, z zvestim jazbečarjem Pipom na povodcu. Z nasmeškom, skritim za temnimi očali, še zadnjič pomaha v slovo svojim filmskim prijateljem, ki so v dobrem desetletju vpili vase toliko njegovega bogatega filmskega znanja, in redkim boemskim tovarišem, s katerimi je v Portorožu, odmaknjen od aktualnega filmskega dogajanja, preživiljal svoja zadnja leta.

Žal filmska slika, na fotokemični način zapisana na filmski trak, ni trajna. Fotografska emulzija (zelatina, ki vsebuje informacije o sliki v obliki metalnega srebra ali pigmentov) se, podvržena zunanjim vplivom (tem-

The short film Piran – The Pearl of Slovenian Coast (directed by František Čap, produced by Viba film Ljubljana, year of production: 1965) is more than just one of numerous Slovenian short films made in the span of seventy years, and more than just tourist propaganda, as might be deduced from its title. At the end of his film career, František Čap, the Czech director whose works at the time made a strong mark in the young Slovenian cinema, recorded a short homage to the town that had become his second home, and, at his wish, also his final resting place.

Accompanied by the sharp sounds of Tartini's Devil's Trill, Čap's mastery in editing painted a portrait of the medieval coastal town, its colourful history and contemporary throb, as well as the harmony of its inhabitants with the marvellous Mediterranean architecture and the sea surrounding it.

This little masterpiece was "Franta's" farewell to the Slovenian film community, which had not always been particularly fond of and not sufficiently grateful for his precious contribution in the very critical years when national cinema was being formed and fostered. It seems as if he had wanted to show once more his skill of dynamic shots, functional camera movements, rhythmic editing, transforming the message into luxurious moving images. Watching the final scene, in which Žan's (the operator, Ivan Marinček) camera draws away from the Piran Peninsula on a speedboat, the idea strikes that there is the tiny figure of master "Franta" standing on board, his loyal dachshund Pip on a lead. Hiding a smile behind dark glasses, for the one last time he waves goodbye to his filmmaking friends who in the previous decade had absorbed so much of his extensive film expertise, and to his rare bohemian friends, with whom he had been spending his final years in Portorož, far from the current happenings in film.

Unfortunately the film image, written on celluloid by means of photochemistry, does not last forever. When exposed to the elements (temperature, humidity), peratura, vlaga) neustavljivo in nepovratno degradira (izguba kontrasta, porušeno barvno ravnoesje, obledelost barv), acetatni nosilec slike lahko napade vinegar syndrome (sindrom ocetne kisline) in ga počasi spremeni v neuporaben zvitek »celuloida«. Črno-beli filmski trakovi se uspešnejše upirajo temu propadanju, posebej če so bili pogoji laboratorijske obdelave ustrezeni in so arhivirani materiali tudi primerno hranjeni. Precej drugače je z barvnimi filmi. Pigmenti se tudi ob optimalnem hranjenju dokaj hitro spremnijo, barve kmalu izgubijo svoj izvirni sjaj, pojavijo se barvni nadivi, drastično se zmanjša kontrast. Še posebej hitro so te spremembe vidne na pozitiv kopijah, ki v času eksploatacije pridobjijo tudi večje ali manjše mehanske poškodbe. Filmski ustvarjalci in strokovnjaki v filmskih arhivih so že v osemdesetih letih prejšnjega stoletja opozorili na zaskrbljujoče stanje filmskih kopij ter pozvali k takojšnjemu reševanju tega pomembnega dela kulturne dediščine človeštva. Klasični fotokemični postopek izdelave novih kopij propadanje izvirnih posnetkov le upočasni, pod pogojem, da izvirnik ni preveč poškodovan, degradiran. Edini skoraj stoddostni postopek ohranjanja barvnih filmov z izdelavo separacijskih črno-belih kopij je pregrešno drag. Stvari so se obrnile na bolje, ko je v novem tisočletju digitalizacija zajela tudi kinematografijo. Digitalizacija filmskih kopij, računalniška obdelava slike in izdelava nove restavrirane filmske kopije, ki se kar najbolj približa izvirnemu artefaktu, je postopek, ki učinkovito in dolgoročno rešuje ta problem.

Stanje ni bistveno drugačno niti v našem nacionalnem arhivu, ki hrani večino slovenske filmske dediščine. To dokazujejo občasne projekcije ob različnih retrospektivah, kinotečne projekcije, predvajanja po televiziji ipd. Večina starejših filmov (približno nad deset let) je zaradi posledic propadanja filmskih kopij tako le bleda podoba izvirnih stvaritev in velikokrat na meji gledljivosti. V Združenju filmskih snemalcev Slovenije že nekaj let opozarjamo na pereče stanje nacionalne filmske kulturne dediščine ter na nespoštljiv the photographic emulsion (gelatine containing the information on the image in the shape of metal silver or pigments) degrades unstoppably and irreversibly (loss of contrast, disturbed colour balance, faded colours); the acetate image carrier might be attacked by the vinegar syndrome, which slowly turns it into a useless celluloid roll. Black-and-white celluloid is better equipped to resist such decay, particularly when it was treated properly in a lab and when the archived materials are kept appropriately. Colour film is another story. Even when stored optimally, pigments start changing quickly, the colours lose their original shine, colour hues appear, the contrast diminishes drastically. Such changes are visible particularly quickly on positive copies, which during exploitation are also susceptible to greater or smaller mechanical damage. As early as 1980s, filmmakers and film archive experts warned about the alarming condition of film copies and called for immediate rescue of this major part of cultural heritage of humanity. The traditional photochemical procedure of making new copies can only slow down the decay of original copies, providing that the original is not damaged or degraded too badly. The only procedure of preserving colour films that is almost a hundred percent reliable is to make separation black-and-white copies, which is horrendously expensive. When in the new millennium digitalisation spread into cinema, things took a turn for the better. The procedure that solves this problem efficiently and in the long-term, consists of digitalising a film copy, computer processing of image and making a new restored film copy that matches the original artefact as much as possible.

The situation in our national archives where the majority of Slovenian film heritage is kept is not much different. This is clear in occasional retrospective screenings, cinematheque screenings, TV showings and alike. Due to the deterioration of film copies, the majority of older films (from about ten years up) are only a faded image of original creations, often verging odnos do filmskih del in njihovih ustvarjalcev, toda vse do danes se pristojno ministrstvo na naša opozorila ni odzvalo oziroma ni ustrezno ukrepalo, zaradi česar imata tudi obe inštituciji, Slovenski filmski arhiv in Slovenska kinoteka, tako rekoč »zvezane roke«. Odločili smo se, da vendorle prekinemo z jalovim jadikovanjem in v sodelovanju z omenjenima inštitucijama ter ob prijazni in volonterski pomoči prijateljev iz studia Restart obnovimo filmsko kopijo Čapovega kratkega filma Piran – biser slovenskega primorja in javno predstavimo trenutno najučinkovitejši postopek restavriranja filmskega dela. Na ta način se bomo priključili praznovanju stoletnice rojstva češkega režiserja, filmskega mojstra, ki je nepozabno zaznamoval slovensko kinematografijo.

on unwatchable. For a number of years, the Slovenian Association of Cinematographers has been warning about the critical condition of our national film cultural heritage and the disrespectful attitude towards films and their authors. Until today, however, the ministry in charge has not responded to our warnings or has not acted correspondingly, which is why both institutions, i.e. the Slovenian Film Archive and the Slovenian Cinematheque have had their hands tied. Nevertheless, we have decided to stop moaning in vain. Rather, we have decided to restore the film copy of Čap's short film Piran – The Pearl of Slovenian Coast in cooperation with both previously mentioned institutions and with the generous voluntary support of our colleagues from the Restart studio, and to present publicly what is currently the most efficient procedure of restoring film works. This is how we wish to contribute to the centenary of the birth of the Czech director, the master of film who has marked the Slovenian cinema unforgettable.

MEDIA PREDAVANJE O TRANSMEDIJSKEM OBLIKOVANJU ZA SODOBNO INDUSTRIJO ZABAVE: »TRANSMEDIA STORYTELLING COOKBOOK GUIDE«
(sobota, 14. september, 16.00-18.00, Zelena dvorana)

V sodobnih tehnikah pripovedovanja se je pojавilo novo geslo – transmedia. Vendar – kaj pomeni transmedia? Transmedijsko oblikovanje se osredotoča na izgradnjo orodij in komunikacije, ki spodbuja domišljijo in vpleta uporabnike v mrežo povezanega občinstva z ustvarjanjem poglobljenih domišljijskih svetov. Je tehnika pripovedovanja, ki se izvaja na različnih platformah sočasno, vendar na način, ustrezni platformi. To se ne nanaša samo na digitalne medije, ampak na kombinacijo različnih medijev, tako tradicionalnih kot digitalnih, na primer televizije, spleta, okolja, radia, mobilnih telefonov itd. S pomočjo transmedijskega pripovedovanja zgodb se knjiga ali film ne konča z zadnjim poglavjem ali prizorom. Poveže se z bralci in gledalci, tako da zgodbu razvije na drugačen način s podajanjem prek neskončnega števila kanalov.

Na predavanju bodo predstavljeni načini in primeri, kako razviti uspešna orodja in tehnike sodobnega pripovedovanja zgodb.

Predavateljica:

Sara Božanić je direktorica Inštituta za transmedijsko oblikovanje s sedežem v Sloveniji. Ona je »hibrid«: je oblikovalka, strateginja, predavateljica in mislec. Verjamemo, da digitalni svet občinstvu odpira nova vrata in omogoča nešteto oblikovalskih možnosti. Leta 2011 je prejela nagrado British Council za mladega ustvarjalnega podjetnika na področju medijev. Tega leta je tudi vstopila v svet transmedijskega oblikovanja, leta 2012 pa je prejela štipendijo za priznano cross media delavniško Power To the Pixel s podporo programa MEDIA.

MEDIA TALK ON TRANSMEDIA DESIGN FOR A CONTEMPORARY ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY: »TRANSMEDIA STORYTELLING COOKBOOK GUIDE«
(Saturday 14 September, 4-6 pm, Green Hall)

A new key word has entered the contemporary storytelling techniques – transmedia. But – what is transmedia? Transmedia design focuses on making the tools and communication to stimulate imagination and create in-depth imaginary worlds aiming to keep busy the imagination of a networked audience. It is a narrative technique that is being implemented on various platforms in a way that is fit for them. This relates not only to digital media, but also to a combination of various media, traditional or digital, such as television, the Internet, the environment, radio, mobile phones, etc.

By means of transmedia storytelling, a book or a film does not end with the final chapter or scene. It forms a connection with the readers and viewers, thus developing a story in a new way by transferring it through an endless number of channels.

The talk will present ways and examples of how to develop successful tools and techniques of contemporary storytelling.

Lecturer:

Sara Božanić is director of the Institute for Transmedia Design, based in Slovenia. She is a "hybrid": a designer, strategist, lecturer, thinker. She believes that the digital world opens up a new door to the audience, thus enabling endless possibilities in design. In 2011, she received the British Council Young Creative Entrepreneur prize for the field of media. In the same year, she entered the world of transmedia design, and in 2012 she received a scholarship for the renowned cross media workshop Power To the Pixel supported by the MEDIA programme.

PRAKTIČNA MEDIA DELAVNICA O TRANSMEDIJSKEM
OBLIKOVANJU: OBLIKOVANJE PRIPOVEDNIH SVETOV
ZA MULTIMEDIJSKO GENERACIJO
(nedelja, 15. september, 11.00-13.00, Zelena dvorana)

Na delavnici se bodo udeleženci pod mentorstvom predavateljice Sare Božanić posvetili možnostim oblikovanja poglobljenih priповедnih svetov za multimedijsko generacijo.
Na podlagi štirih predhodno izbranih filmskih projektov bodo oblikovali transmediji svetove. Pogovarjali se bodo o temah, kot so oblikovanje strategij za občinstvo, povezano v multimedijsko mrežo, o načinih kako zgraditi skupnost in oblikovati svetove, ki to občinstvo aktivno vključuje v komunikacijo.
Sooblikovali bodo proces, v katerem se bodo osnovni deli njihove zgodbe sistematično razpršili po različnih medijskih kanalih, da bi dosegli širše občinstvo in podali vsebino zgodbe na osebnejši ravni.

PRACTICAL MEDIA WORKSHOP ON TRANSMEDIA
DESIGN: DESIGNING ONLINE STORYTELLING WORLDS
FOR A MULTIMEDIA GENERATION
(Sunday 15 September, 11am-1 pm, Green Hall)

Mentored by the lecturer Sara Božanić, participants to the workshop will look into the possibilities of designing in-depth narrative worlds for a multimedia generation.
Based on four chosen film projects, they will be discussing include designing strategies for audiences integrated into a multimedia network, ways of building communities and designing the worlds that engage such audiences in active communication.
Together, they will design a process in which the basic parts of their story will be systematically scattered across various media channels to reach a wider audience and present the story so as to make it more personal.

Nebo za slovenske filmske zvezde

Muzej slovenskih filmskih igralcev (MSFI) domuje v prenovljeni Škrateljnovi domačiji, enkratnem primeru kraške arhitekture. Ponuja edinstveno doživetje slovenske filmske dediščine, s poudarkom na igralski umetnosti. Na ogled sta dve stalni razstavi – stalna razstava posvečena igralki Iri Rini, rojeni kot Ida Kravanja v Divači, ter osrednja stalna razstava posvečena slovenskim filmskim igralcem, ki obiskovalcem odstira skrivnosti filmske igre in jih seznanja z domačimi igralci in igralkami, ki so se zapisali v zgodovino slovenskega filma. V poletnih mesecih muzej ponuja ogled filmov v letnem kinu, preko celega leta pa so v večnamenski dvorani organizirane razne delavnice za otroke in mladino, predavanja, gostovanja in projekcije filmov.
